

Chef Dominic Iannarelli

Iannarelli began his career in the kitchen of a high-school friend's father's restaurant. Here, he grew to love the fast pace and working in a restaurant. While attending Iowa State University, Dominic earned his stripes working in the kitchens of a number of Des Moines restaurants and country clubs. Upon graduation, Dominic earned a Sous Chef position at Jimmy's American Cafe and soon became Executive Chef. As he continued to build his career, he served as Executive Chef with the highly-rated Splash Seafood for six years. He is currently continues his affiliation with Splash and splits his time in Burlington, Iowa where he is the Executive Chef of Martini's Grill.

